Good Morning Readers,

We had high winds all night but no rains which were predicted. Maybe they are still coming. Winds are still blowing and had flood watch warnings as well. Snow banks are melting fast with the temperature being 55 degrees this morning. With our neighbors outdoor lights reflecting on the water, it looks like our pastures must be flooded again.

We had a beautiful winter with a few nice snows, but I think I am getting ready for spring, usually that brings more sunshine. I do not have all my winter projects done. I have quite a long list I had wanted to do, mostly sewing, etc. I am still working at them & spring is not here yet.

I did get my seed order ready and dream about a beautiful garden with no weeds.

Three of our grandchildren are here for 4 nights and they go to school from here while their parents are in Kentucky. Michael helps grandpa with his chores in the evening and the girls, Darla and Annie, I can tell like the kitchen. Tonight they offered to bake either bars or cookies, so we'll see.

Marnita & Eric welcomed another son on January 24 - Lance Harvey, 6 lb., 11 oz. Toby and Liz seem quite excited. Tonight we want to attend the calling hour of Eric's father, Earl Brubaker, and Saturday the funeral. He was 60 years old and working hard as a farmer, building pole barns and feeding cattle.

Monday morning on Valentine's Day while at work he had an apparent heart attack. The youngest of the family is 12 years old and still in school.

Harvey is busy bagging and filling compost orders. He is not sure he'll have enough product for everyone this spring. Some orders might have to wait a little until it warms up so he can finish the half done wind rows. When freezing temperatures come, composting stops. He usually says when it is fit for farming it is nice to do composting.

Every 3 days Harvey checks his cattle out on pasture, making sure hay rings are filled and waters are still running. It doesn't matter which part of pasture they are in, if he can't find them, he'll call and wait, and soon he sees them coming. One by one they will gather all around him. When they are hungry they come running, otherwise, they just walk slow. So he makes sure they are all there and there are no sick ones. He's said a few times already that his pasture cattle are his healthiest looking cattle he has ever had.

Our Spring Shop Hop is coming up in March and each shop has their own things they will be doing. We are looking forward to seeing you.

It is time to get the girls' hair braided, get breakfast started, and get ready for school. This is their last day here and they are excited as after school they, along with some others, will get to meet mom and dad in Kentucky and spend one day before turning home.

Fear Forces, Love Leads, Faith Follows.

JUST FOR TODAY - I will live thru This Day Only! I will not brood about yesterday or obsess about tomorrow. I will not set far-reaching goals or try to overcome all my problems at once. I know that I can do something for 24 hours that would overwhelm me if I kept it up for a lifetime.

JUST FOR TODAY - I will be happy. I will not dwell on thoughts that depress me. If my mind fills with clouds, I will chase them away and fill it with sunshine.

JUST FOR TODAY - I will accept what is. I will face reality. I will correct those things I can and accept those things I can not.

JUST FOR TODAY - I will improve my mind. I will read something that requires effort, thought and concentration. I will not be a mental loafer.

JUST FOR TODAY - I will make a conscious effort to be agreeable. I will be kind and courteous to those who cross my path. And I will not speak ill of others. I will improve my appearance, speak softly, and not interrupt when someone else is talking.

JUST FOR TODAY - I will refrain from improving anybody but myself.

JUST FOR TODAY - I will gather the courage to do what is right and take responsibility for my own actions!

RESPECT THE OLD WHEN YOU ARE YOUNG. HELP THE WEAK WHEN YOU ARE STRONG. FORGIVE THE FAULT WHEN YOU ARE WRONGED. BECAUSE, ONE DAY IN LIFE YOU WILL BE OLD... WEAK... OR WRONGED.
